

Campaign Notes

Mr. J. C. Carroll is receiving the congratulations of her many friends for winning the special $25,000 prize, which was given for the most subscriptions last week. Mrs. Carroll is the wife of the Rev. J. C. Carroll, assistant pastor of Oliver Baptist Church.

and is being strongly supported by the various church organizations. Mrs. John McPherson is making an exceptionally race and her many friends are giving her exceptionally strong support. Mrs. McPherson is well known to all through her work in public health service.

Mrs. E. T. Beck of Evanston, Ill., is being loyally supported by her large host of friends in Evanston and in Chicago. Mrs. Beck is the wife of Dr. E. T. Beck, well known physician and surgeon at 3601 South State Street, and is prominent in club well-known circles.

Miss Lottie Gordon, a popular government employee, is making an exceptionally strong race and her campaign, is being watched with much interest by her large circle of friends and acquaintance.

The American Red Cross Society at 102 East 35th Street is being ably represented by Mrs. Evangeline Roberts. Mrs. Roberts is one of the best known and popular field workers of this organization and is receiving unusual assistance from all sources.

Mr. Henry E. Humphrey is making sensational gains in the big race and a large number of votes and subscriptions are coming into the office from Mr. Humphrey's many friends.

Mrs. Lula Gordon of Spring Valley, Ill., has a well-organized following of friends all over the country who are contributing loyally to her big campaign.

Owing to the unfortunate illness last week of Miss Olivia Beasley she was dependent upon her many friends for the support which she received and Miss Beasley is proud of the manner in which her friends rallied to her cause. Miss Beasley has recovered from her illness and is again in the field pushing forward her campaign.

Mrs. Myrtle Roberts is making an interesting race in spite of the fact that a great deal of her time is taken up with her business affairs. Mrs. Roberts is a popular proprietress of the Le Roy Drug Store, 24 West 29th Street, and has hosts of friends.

Miss Edith Hodges has been handicapped in her campaign through the illness of her mother. This popular young lady, however, is being strongly supported and her race is being watched with much interest by all who know her.

Miss Mary Byrd of the Boston Dental Parlor, 3457 South State Street, is piling up the votes in a systematic manner, and the other contestants will do well to watch this charming young lady.

Miss Grace Wilkerson of Woodard Studio at 35th and Giles Avenue is spending several days visiting relatives in Davenport, Iowa, where she is energetically collecting subscriptions and votes which is making her a strong contestant in the big race.

Among the stronger out-of-town contestants is Miss Emma Reynolds of Forrest City, Ark. Miss Reynolds weekly report speak well for this charming young lady's popularity in the district which she represents.

Mme. Willie Mae Wilson is being well supported throughout her campaign by a large circle of friends.

Rev. W. M. Bennett, pastor of Chicago Ideal Baptist Church, is probably one of the best supported candidates to enter the campaign. The Rev. Bennett's entire following is rallying to his support and his campaign is attracting city-wide attention.

Names of Contestants

HOW TO GET 3,280,000 VOTES.

Just two ten-year subscriptions to The Chicago Whip will count you 2,480,000 votes. One five-year subscription credits you with 600,000 more votes. This makes a total of 3,080,000 votes for only three good subscriptions. In addition, with the two ten-year subscriptions and the one five year subscription you get the 200,000 extra votes, making a grand total of 3,280,000 votes.

This is the way to pile up the big vote score—this is the way to get the winning votes that will land the brand new $1,570.00 Paige. Remember that the last chance to land votes on the double-quick ends Saturday night, June 3rd, at 10 o'clock.

Remember that the two-, three-, four-, five-, and ten-year subscriptions count the greatest number of votes.
